The Hmong Resource Fair Brief Background and Mission:

The Hmong Resource Fair was started by a small group of concerned Hmong Professionals and community members in 2001. They realized there were many services but not everyone knows or has access to the services in the community. So the idea of a centralized clearinghouse for the Hmong community in Minnesota was started. Resources included education (K-12 and higher education), healthcare, social services, legal, employment services, and many more. The first two events were held in May to co-incide with Asian Heritage Month but in 2004 the Hmong Resource Fair planning committee postponed the event to the fall of 2004 to accommodate the resettlement of the Hmong refugees from Wat Tham Krabok, Thailand. In 2005 the event will focus on getting information resources to the large numbers of Hmong refugees from Thailand who have now resettled in Minnesota as well as the broader Hmong community.
