The Saint Paul-based Hmong Studies Journal is pleased to announce the publication of volume 17. An internet-based journal, the Hmong Studies Journal is the only peer-reviewed academic publication devoted to the scholarly discussion of Hmong history, Hmong culture, Hmong people, and other facets of the Hmong experience in the U.S., Asia and around the world. The Hmong Studies Journal has now published 19 online issues in 17 volumes with a total of 163 scholarly articles since 1996.

Dr. Mark Pfeifer, Editor of the Hmong Studies Journal stated “Volume 17 of the journal includes articles from multiple academic disciplines including History, Asian American Studies, Critical Race Studies, Sociology, Cultural Anthropology and Public Health. This newly published set of articles provides significant additions to studies of Hmong History in China as well as contemporary Hmong American and Hmong Diaspora research. Include in this year’s publication are noteworthy studies of the history of Hmong American social protests, the racialization of Hmong American male youth, events that led to the exodus of hundreds of thousands of Hmong from China in the late 18th and early 19th century as well as perhaps the first research study of the Hmong community in Argentina. This scholarly research will be widely disseminated through the Hmong Studies Journal’s website, the journal’s social media pages and to thousands of academic and public libraries through dissemination agreements with major scholarly database aggregators including EBSCO, ProQuest, Gale/Cengage, the Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ) and Asia-Studies Full-Text.”
